Dear Sir:

Referring to your favor of 16th inst. would say that we do not anticipate at the present time making regular asphaltic road oils for the present season. The demand of munitions makers for fuel oil is so great that every product that can be adapted for this purpose has to be used. We think you will agree that this is our patriotic duty at the present time.

We may add that we have tried to purchase supplies of road oil in the United States but so far have been unable as we find that the refiners there are tied up to munitions plants as they are in Canada.

Thanking you for your inquiry,

Yours very truly,

THE BRITISH AMERICAN OIL CO. LTD.
