

Accident still under investigation

Occurrences investigated by the officers of the Bradford OPP during the week included 11 traffic accidents in which one person was killed and six persons were injured.

On the morning of Nov. 1, Nancy Theodoru of Toronto was killed when the car driven by her husband George was involved in a collision with a pick up truck driven by Frank Anzil of Klienburg. Mr. Anzil's wife Tina was a passenger in the truck.

Mr. Theodoru remains at Sunnybrook Medical Centre.

Mr. Anzil is in intensive care in stable condition at York County Hospital. His wife has been transferred to St. Michael's Hospital.

OPP are still investigating the accident, which occurred at Highways 11 and 89, near Gilford. No charges have been laid as yet.

Bradford OPP investigated 42 occurrences during the week, including two drivers charged with excess alcohol. Also, five liquor related charges were laid.