

NINA SALIWONCZYK, 17, KILLED IN CAR COLLISION ON HWY. 11 ON HOLIDAY EVENING

Nina Saliwonczyk, 17, who since coming to Canada had spent most of her life in the Bradford area and was known among the young people as a very bright and intelligent young girl, met a tragic death in the flaming wreckage of a car on No. 11 Highway, near Mulock's Corners, on the evening of the Civic holiday.

The Saliwonczyk family lives on the Federal Farms side-road and, according to information given The Witness, Nina, who had been working in Toronto, had been home for over the holiday and was being driven back to the city by her sister, Mrs. Olga Marie Styles of Riverdrive Park, when the accident occurred.

From reports appearing in the daily press it would appear that two cars, one from Smith's Falls and the other from Willowdale had been in a minor collision when hit by Mrs. Styles' car. Fire broke out and almost instantly the roadway was a mass of flames. Mrs. Styles was pulled from the car and, though burned, will recover, but no one realized that she had a passenger until it was too late.

Nina Saliwonczyk's funeral was held from the Russian Orthodox Church in Toronto on Friday.
