

Clip Out This Official BRADFORD CENTENNIAL Programme

SUNDAY, AUGUST 4

10:00 a.m.—Registration booths will be open daily through to Wednesday, August 7, at Community Centre grounds. Wooden nickels will be given away as souvenirs.

Special Centennial Services will be held in all churches.

3:00 p.m.—Drumhead Service with military speaker and Newmarket Citizens' Band in attendance will be held on the grounds of the Community Centre.

5:30 p.m.—Bring your own picnic supper and meet your old friends in the Community Centre arena. Free coffee will be served.

7:00 p.m.—Band Concert by Newmarket Citizens' Band in the arena.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 4, THROUGH TO WEDNESDAY,
AUGUST 7

Museum—display of old pictures and articles of interest in the club room at the curling rink.

Vegetable Display—showing samples of Bradford's rich marsh products in the curling rink.

MONDAY, AUGUST 5, THROUGH TO WEDNESDAY,
AUGUST 7

10:00 a.m.—Tour of the Village of Bradford, the Marsh, and Industries, leaving from Community Centre grounds.

Afternoon and evening—Carnival rides for the children at the Community Centre.

Films showing the devastation wrought by Hurricane Hazel on the Bradford Marsh, in auditorium of Community Centre.

MONDAY, AUGUST 5

10:00 a.m.—Beauty Contest—Centennial Queen will be chosen at Community Centre Arena.

1:00 p.m.—Softball Tournament.

1:30 p.m.—Float and Antique Car Parade including local service clubs, Boy Scouts, all nationalities represented in their native costume as well as the bearded men, accompanied by Newmarket Citizens' Band, Bowmanville Legion Pipe Band, Riverdale Trumpet Band with Drum majorettes, and Aurora Comic Band, led by the Centennial Queen. Parade starts from West Gwillimbury Township Municipal Building.

4:00 p.m.—Official Welcome to all former Bradfordites by Reeve D. Arthur Evans, followed by the Official Opening of the Bradford and District Memorial Community Centre, as well as the Official Opening of the Bradford and District Curling Club Limited.

8:30 p.m.—Professional Wrestling Match (three bouts) at Arena.

PLEASE NOTE:

Our Centennial Book will be on sale at the Registration Booths.

This is a history of Bradford, covering the last hundred years, in picture and story form, compiled and edited by Ina and Stewart McKenzie, editors and publishers of The Bradford Witness.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 6

At Community Centre Arena

2:00 p.m.—Lacrosse: Old Timers versus 1957 players.

3:00 p.m.—Baby Contest.

4:00 p.m.—Tug-of-War.

7:00 p.m.—Soccer.

8:00 p.m.—Square Dancing Competition and dancing for all.

9:00 p.m.—Fire Protection Display.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 7

1:00 p.m.—Soap Box Derby, Church Street.

2:30 p.m.—Judging and prizes given for:

Best 1857 costumes;

Best decorated children's vehicles;

Oldest person in attendance;

Person coming greatest distance at Community Centre Arena.

3:00 p.m.—Local schools will be open.

7:00 p.m.—Mammoth Car Draw in Arena: Prizes valued at $11,000. Only 600 tickets will be sold. Prizes include three cars, plus 61 other prizes—televisions, refrigerator, stove, washer, dryers, toasters, fry pans, and irons.

During the intermissions of the car draw, the lucky ticket on the Centennial Doll will be drawn, also the winners of the beard-growing contest will be chosen.

10:00 p.m.—Mammoth FIREWORKS Display on Community Centre grounds.

12:00 midnight—Nightshirt Parade from fire hall, Barrie Street.

BRADFORD BUSINESS MEN'S STORE HOURS DURING CENTENNIAL

Closed Civic Holiday, Monday, Aug. 5; Open all day Tuesday, Aug. 6; Open till 12 o'clock noon, Wednesday, Aug. 7.

SOAP BOX DERBY

All entries for Soap Box Derby must be in to Don Gardner by Monday, Aug. 5.

D. ARTHUR EVANS, Reeve,
Chairman Centennial Committee.