

JOHN FIELDSEND

Following an illness of three weeks, the result of a stroke, the death occurred in Stevenson Memorial Hospital, Alliston, on Monday, August 24, 1942, of John Fieldsend, native of West Gwillimbury.

Born in 1862 on concession 11, West Gwillimbury, where he resided all his life, he was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fieldsend who came to Canada from Lincolnshire, England. Of a quiet disposition, he was a successful farmer. He was a member of St. John's Anglican Church, Cookstown.

Surviving is one sister, Miss Mary Elizabeth Fieldsend, Cookstown.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, August 26, from the home of Mr. R. Batters in Tecumseth Township. The funeral service was held in St. John's Anglican Church, Cookstown, and was conducted by the rector, Rev. B. Atkinson. Interment was in St. John's Cemetery, Cookstown.

The pallbearers were Messrs. T. J. Dawson, Chris. Lee, Wilfred Bell, H. T. Rankin, R. Batters and Robt. Webber.