

ready to shove him out of his room.

The G.T.R. has announced its intention of building a modern station in Aurora on the premises near the present site.

In his last letter from De Aar Camp, Wash. D.C. the U.S. Government