

Spelling, please

Will the real Colborne (Colbourne?) street please stand up. After a little intrepid investigative reporting The Witness has learned that the correct spelling of this Bradford street's name is in fact Colborne. The street was named after the steamboat of the same name which used to ply the waters of Lake Simcoe in 1835 docking regularly in Bradford. Town officials refuse to discuss the dramatic discovery of the misplaced U.