

Late bulletin

West Gwillimbury has joined William Reid in the injunction being sought against John Zima. The injunction is to stop Zima from completing the building he started on his own land last September.

The injunction will be heard Wednesday, November 13 in the Ontario Supreme Court. For information on a meeting between the Reids and the township on October 28, see page 5.