

Fire, Fire, Fire!

I HAVE pleasure in stating that I shall soon make arrangements, for the purpose of disposing of the

DRY GOODS

Saved from the Fire of the 24th ult.

The Goods are in excellent condition and will be Sold

At and Less than Cost,
FOR CASH.

They are principally this Spring's purchases, and consist of Staples which everybody requires.

I expect to see the "old, familiar faces," and a good many new ones—and that, ere many weeks, the last "remnant" will have disappeared.

D. JAMES GEORGE.

Bradford, July 2, 1862.

24f