

Wilbert Orr dies at age 75

WILBERT ORR

Wilbert Keith Orr, 75, of Bond Head, died Friday, Jan. 18 at the York County Hospital, Newmarket.

Son of Andrew Orr and Jane Campbell, both of Dufferin County, he was born Feb. 16, 1909 in Tecumseth Township. He was married Mar. 8, 1941 in the bride's home to Jean Lisk and has lived on the fifth line of Tecumseth and in Bond Head.

He attended Penville S.S. 8, Bradford High School and Barrie Business College and worked as a farmer, a merchant and a school bus driver. He also belonged to the Masonic, Rose Croix and Eastern Star fraternal organization.

Surviving are his wife, one daughter, Donna, Mrs. Andrew Rabiewsky, two grandchildren, three sisters, Marion Craig, of Toronto, Maida Ritchie, of Beeton and Madeline Porritt, of Gilford and one brother, Wm. J. Orr, of Tottenham.

Funeral services were held Monday, Jan. 21 at the Lathangue and Skwarchuk

Obituaries

Funeral Home with Rev. Karen Cummings officiating. Interment Bond Head Cemetery.

ELIZABETH WIST

Elizabeth Wist, 84, of 200 Holland Court, Bradford, died on Monday, Jan. 14, 1985 in York County Hospital, Newmarket.

The daughter of Joseph and Katherine Ernst, of Yugoslavia, she was born on Apr. 28, 1900 in Yugoslavia.

She was a member of the Holy Martyrs of Japan Roman Catholic Church.

Predeceased by her husband John Wist Sr. and a son Frank, she is survived by her son John Wist Jr., of RR1 Kettleby, four grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Thursday, Jan. 17 at the Holy Martyrs of Japan Church with Father Vella officiating. Interment Holy Martyrs Cemetery.