

BRADFORD HOTEL,

HOLLAND ST., BRADFORD.

THE Proprietor of the above named House begs to state that he has completely fitted it up with every accommodation for Travellers and the Public generally, and can confidently recommend his Establishment to their attention and patronage as unsurpassed by any other North of Toronto.

The Premises are commodious, new, and well arranged; and all the necessary requisites for a good Hotel, in the way of Furniture, light, &c., &c., and that tends to the comfort of the inner and outer man, will be found on hand at all times.

THE LARDER AND BAR

Supplied with the Choicest and Best.

EXTENSIVE STABLING!

for Horses, and also Driving Sheds, are attached, and a careful Ostler in attendance at all times.

Thankful for past favors so liberally extended to him, he trusts to merit a still wider and increasing custom.

WM. MILLER, Proprietor.

Bradford, March 20, 1862.