

George and Helen Jackson Heritage Room
Joe Saint Fonds
Scotch Settlement v.1 part 400

JSC v.1-400-01 Application to the Ontario Historical Society

- application for a grant under "History of Ontario's Peoples Grant Programme"
- The Scotch Settlement History Reference Project
- 9 pages

JSC v.1-400-02 History of the Auld Kirk

- a brief history of the Auld Kirk located on Conc. 6 West Gwillimbury

JSC v.1-400-03 Lawson, McKinsty

- very brief history of James Lawson
- brief history of Robert McKinsty and family
- partial article on the Scotch Settlement
- 5 copies

JSC v.1-400-04 A Recent Visit to Old Kildonan Church, Winnipeg

- brief history of Selkirk Settlers in Winnipeg
- the Kildonan Presbyterian Church
- story of author's visit to Winnipeg
- photocopy from The Bradford Witness June 1, 1949
- 2 pages; 2 copies

JSC v.1-400-05 A Review of the Information Available

- a review of the information available regarding the Selkirk Settlers and the Scotch Settlement West Gwillimbury Twp.
- prepared by George Jackson
- includes a photocopy of a map with settlers names written on lots
- 14 pages
- 1 full copy, 1 partial copy without a title page

JSC v.1-400-06 Scotch Settlement

- Matthew Robert Faris obituary
- article: 'When Barrie Had Population of About 500'
- 2 copies

JSC v.1-400-07 Scotch Settlement Historical Society

- notice of summer meeting
- guest speaker Mac Wilson
- Saturday, 28 July 1990

JSC v.1-400-08 Selkirk Settlers

- list of Selkirk Settlers and Irish settlers
- chronology of Auld Kirk 1823-1967
- 2 pages

JSC v.1-400-09 They Came Home for the Centennial

- articles on Scotch Settlement people and descendents of them returning to West Gwillimbury for the centennial reunion
- The Bradford Witness, Aug. 7, 1957

JSC v.1-400-10 The Witness: Thursday, March 10, 1892

- Early Settlers: information on Scotch Settlement
- John McKay
- long list of early settlers (Scotch Settlement people and others)
- 3 pages