
LETTER FROM ENGLAND

Somewhere in England,

23-3-422.

The Bradford Witness,
Bradford, Ontario.

Dear Sir;

I would like to thank all the friends who contributed in sending me the swell parcel which I have just received. I cannot find time to thank all of you individually, but I want you to know that I greatly appreciate your kindness. It means a lot to me to receive a gift from folks I have known as friends. Again, thank you one and all.

I received a copy of The Bradford Witness to-day. Thanks a million for sending it so regularly. I am awfully glad to get them and always look forward to receiving the next copy.

Wishing you all the best of luck in everything, I remain,

Yours sincerely,
Eric Wright.
