

WESTLAKE—McBRIDE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McBride, Malton, was the setting for a pretty ceremony when their daughter, Florence Adele, became the bride of Mr. Joseph Roy Westlake, Toronto, son of Mrs. Annie Westlake, of Bradford. Rev. Frank Sullivan officiated and Mrs. Clarence Dennis of Cooksville played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a graceful gown of hyacinth blue crepe trimmed with silver nailheads, fingertip veil of matching blue held with a halo and her flowers were nectar pom-poms. Mrs. Melville Ackroyd, of Brampton, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, wearing cinnamon brown crepe, with gold leaves in her hair and carrying old gold chrysanthemums. Mr. Ernest Westlake was groomsman for his brother.

Mrs. McBride, in plum crepe with rose corsage, and Mrs. Westlake, in black crepe with similar corsage, received with the bridal party.

After the reception the couple left for Quebec, and will live in Malton. The bride went away in a frock of burgundy wool, matching accessories and tweed coat with lynx collar. The groom's gift to the bride was a set of kolinsky furs.
