

BRADFORD
WEST
GWILLIMBURY
PUBLIC LIBRARY

George and Helen Jackson Heritage Room

Joe Saint Fonds

Buildings/Architecture v.3 part 1600

JSC v.3-1600-01 Armitage

- Friend's Meeting House erected in 1810 in the Quaker community of Armitage
- settlement named after Amos Armitage, part of the first Quaker's to arrive in the 1800's

JSC v.3-1600-02 "Bradford Landmark Comes Down"

- photo from The Witness, May 2 1973 of old Magani House
- former home of Bradford Mayor Joe Magani

JSC v.3-1600-03 "Bradford Landmark – It's a new Village Inn"

- photos and article from The Witness, July 7, 1976 by Nancy Devitt
- renovations of the 100 year old Village Inn
- owners: Peter Dutko, Bill Dykie, Dominic Fiordimondo
- 3 copies

JSC v.3- 1600-04 Bradford Seed House

- article by Harvey W. Curry, Wednesday November 17, 1965
- personal reflection of Curry's life in Bradford since 1898
- list of owners of The Bradford Seed House property dating back to 1830
- 9 copies

JSC v.3 – 1600-05 Bradford Town Hall

- photos from Bradford West Gwillimbury Today, April 22, 1992
- pictures of Town Hall in 1906 and 1992
- 1 original, 2 copies

JSC v.3 – 1600-06 Brown's Hotel

- photo of Brown's Hotel, 3 copies

JSC v.3 – 1600-07 "Convent's Fate Still Questionable"

- from The Bradford Gazette, Tuesday June 28, 1988
- recommendation that St. Mary's convent to be used to house the Recreation and Cultural Complex

JSC v.3 – 1600-08 "Country Home away from Home"

- from The Bradford West Gwillimbury Times, August 19, 1992
- Klubine family farm on Hwy.11, built in 1850
- used as a Bed and Breakfast – Country Guest Home

JSC v.3 – 1600-09 Crake Farm

- Richard Crake's Greenview Farm one of the best for wheat growing
- 3 copies

JSC v.3 – 1600-10 Evans Block

- located at 21 Holland Street West
- workman: Louis A. Neilly
- 3 copies

JSC v.3-1600-11 Eversley

- Presbyterian Church interior
- Railway station

JSC v.3-1600-12 Gillies' farm

- built in the 1800's at Refferty's Corners
- burned down in the 1970's
- 1800's the house was acquired by A.B. Wells