

Trinity Auction fever!

Every year, Bradford's Trinity Anglican Church holds the largest charity auction in Bradford West Gwillimbury.

Items up for bids range from the sublime - a diamond ring, donated by Universal Gems; a hot air balloon ride donated by Hugh Adams - to the downright silly. Last year, under the direction of auctioneer Allen Homer, bidding was fierce for the right to shave off the beards of two hirsute volunteers.

This year, the event will be raising funds to install a handicapped access ramp and an elevator at the church.

The Auction takes place Friday, May 13th, 7:30 p.m. at the Bradford Arena. There is no admission charge. Refreshments can be purchased.
