Relief.—The Reeve received a letter from Eglinton, yesterday, informing him that that village had gave an entertainment for the benefit of sufferers in this village, at which the handsome sum of seventy dollars had been realized, and that it would be forwarded at once.

We have received, on reliable authority, information to the effect that the County Council of Wellington, has donated $200, toward the relief of the sufferers, by the late fire.

We but express the sentiment of the whole village, when we say that these sums are gratefully received, and from the fact that a committee of the most influential men of this village, and West Gwillimbury, has undertaken at considerable loss of time to themselves, to distribute these amounts to the best of their ability, we feel satisfied that the appropriations made, will give general satisfaction to those who have so liberally come to the relief of the sufferers by the late fire.
