

---

E. GLADSTONE LLOYD OF SCHOMBERG, DIES

---

Funeral service for E. Gladstone Lloyd, 55, Schomberg's postmaster for more than 25 years was held on Monday at Schomberg United Church, conducted by Rev. Gordon C. Hunter. Entombment was in Union cemetery, Schomberg.

Mr. Lloyd died Friday from a heart ailment at York County Memorial Hospital, Newmarket. A veteran of World War I, he served in France with the Canadian Field Artillery and in World War II held the rank of Lieutenant with the signals division of the reserve force of the Queen's York Rangers reserves.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lloyd of Schomberg, he was born at nearby Loydton. A prominent figure in village activity, Mr. Lloyd for many years was a local sports promoter and was actively associated with Schomberg's softball clubs. He was a member of the Lions Club, the Union Masonic Lodge, a former secretary-treasurer of the school board for 20 years, and a member of the United Church. He had earlier served as a village commissioner and was a former chief of the local fire department.

Surviving are his widow, the former Mildred Ferguson; two sons, Blake, stationed with the R.C.A.F. at Summerside, P.E.I., and Grant, at home; and two daughters, Betty and Sheila, at home; his parents, and a sister, Mrs. Harry Carter of Schomberg.

---